

CAREER GOALS

Name: _____ High School: _____

You may already know what career you will pursue when you graduate high school or you may still be searching for a career that will fit you just right. Either way, planning now for the future is a step to fulfilling your dreams.

Reaching any career goals takes a personal commitment on your part. Every plan for tomorrow requires action today. Even if you are undecided about which career is right for you, it is a good idea to begin preparing TODAY. You can begin here:

1. I'd like to learn more about the following careers:

a) _____ b) _____ c) _____

To learn more about these careers I will:

- Research them on the Internet and at the library
- Attend Engineering Career Fairs (or related events)
- Participate in Job Shadow or Internship opportunities
- Talk with my Guidance Counselor and teachers
- Talk with my parents
- Write/call/email colleges for more information
- Talk with representatives from business and industry
- Other

2. Some of the skills that my possible career field(s) require are:

a) _____ b) _____ c) _____

3. My educational plan is to:

- Receive a high school diploma
- Join the military and go to college later
- Earn an Associate Degree (two years of college)
- Earn a Bachelor Degree (four years of college)
- Enter into an Apprenticeship program after high school

4. In order to obtain my educational goals beyond high school I will need to:

- Take high school coursework that will prepare me for college
- Take SAT's and/or ACT's
- Research colleges in school and with my parents and take college tours
- Complete college applications
- Contact a military recruiter
- Contact apprenticeship programs
- Other
